International Society of Arboriculture Hosts International Tree Climbing Competition

ATLANTA, Ga. (September 11, 2019) — The International Society of Arboriculture (ISA), along with the ISA Denmark Chapter, will host the 2022 International Tree Climbing Championship (ITCC) 9-11 September at Fælledparken in København, Denmark.

ITCC is an opportunity for the best professional tree climbers, men and women, from around the world to compete and showcase new climbing techniques and equipment. Free and open to the general public, this is a unique opportunity to see a sporting event like no other.

Throughout the event, professional arborists will compete in a series of challenges showcasing skill, technique and athleticism while emphasizing the importance of safety and proper tree care.

Additionally, there will be an Arbor Fair and a host of vendor booths for the public to enjoy. Arbor Fair is an educational and fun event for the public that focuses on environmental issues and promoting proper tree care. Attendees can stop by the “Ask an Arborist” booth for expert advice, find info about the latest equipment from participating sponsors, sample local food truck fare and more. Children can participate in the Kids’ Fun Climb with simulated limb walking exercises and tree climbing activities. The tree climbing championship is guaranteed to entertain everyone.
